

The band now numbers fifty-five instrumentalists and is the largest now in America, its closest competitor numbering but forty-eight musicians. It is Apropos of the recent successful appearance in London of Nance O'Neil, who met with a kind reception on the Pacific coast a few years ago, a critic

"One of the frequent romances of the stage is about to culminate in London, from which city we shall soon be read-writes:

THIS WEEK AT

EK AT

THE THEATRES

THEAT GRAND THEATRE. - Mon- +

day, Tuesday, Wednesday and thing, "Thurs-tinee, "Hello, Bill;" Thurs-tinee, "The Stowaway."

SALT LAKE THEATRE.—

Wednesday and Thursday

Minstrel Jubilee; Friday, Sat-tunday and matinee, "The Lib-turday and sat the national concourse of Italian bands at Turin. In America Rivela's band had won the king's prize at the national concourse of Italian bands at Turin. In America Rivela's band had won the king's prize at the national concourse of Italian bands at Turin. In America Rivela's band had won the king's prize at the national concourse of Italian bands at Turin. In America Rivela's band had won the king's prize at the national concourse of Italian bands at Turin. In America Rivela has been recognized already as the greatest bandmaster this country has ever known, and the present tour of the band sat Turin. In America Rivela's band had won the king's prize at the national concourse of Italian bands at Turin. In America Rivela has been recognized already as the greatest bandmaster this country has ever known, and the present tour of the band storing for the band sat Turin. In America Rivela has been recognized already as the greatest bandmaster this country has ever known and the greatest bandmaster this country has ever known and the greatest bandmaster this country has ever known, and the present tour of the band storing for the band storing for the greatest bandmaster this country has ever known and the greatest bandmaster this country has ever known and the greatest bandmaster this country has ever known, and the present tour of the band storing for the greatest bandmaster this country has ever known, and the present tour of the band storing for the more and the greatest bandmaster this country has ever known, and the present tour of the band storing for the band storing for the band storing for the band st + urday and matinee, "The Lib- + ganization of the kind could not be im + erty Belles." + proved upon.

+++++++++++++++

THE movement for a permanent orchestra in Salt Lake has taken definite and, it is hoped, substantial shape. A week ago Director Arthur Shepherd called together the musicians of his choice for rehearsal at sicians of his choice for rehearsal at the Theatre, and twenty-five attended. This number can be increased by a Hozen and with thirty-five members it certainly looks as though Salt Lake will have a magnificent organization. Another rehearsal is called for today at 1 o'clock. at 1 o'clock.

The orchestra will be under the man-The orchestra will be under the management of the Salt Lake theatre, and the plan is to give at least four concerts each season in the Theatre. In order to do this, it will be necessary to solicit subscriptions from the wealthy people of the city and they should respond with enthusiasm—and cash. It costs something to support a good orchestra. New York, Chicago, Boston and Philadelphia discovered that long ago. And if Salt Lake can have an interpretation of the same process. ago. And if Salt Lake can have an orchestra at a comparatively small cost, why on earth shouldn't it?

It is a project that should get the support of the wealthy and the musical public at large.
All success to the movement!

Willard Foster, the Salt Lake actor, who is now filling a theatrical engagement in the east, was to play at Palmer, Mass., a few evenings ago. He fell asleep on the train while nearling his destination and did not awaken until the train had reached Worcester, some distance beyond. He did not have money enough with him to pay his way back. As he quite frequently sings for the Episcopalians, he sought out a minister of that faith who furnished him with a much needed dollar.

Identify that Ristori used to the literate the 'Elizabeth' that Ristori used to the 'Elizabeth' that Ristori used to me."

PRESS AGENTS' PROMISE.

The Grand has booked a full week, beginning tomorrow night with a farce comedy, "Hello Bill," in which Harry Corson Clarke, the old-time favorite, is featured. The press agent says:

(San Francisco Bulletin.)

(King Edward attended a ministrel show the other day.—News Item.)

(King Edward attended a ministrel show the other day.—News Item.)

(King Hedward's werry feeble!" is the monkey more than the human being disport themselves grotesquely and disport the sall rouge for at me, "

"And Touge Pot at me, "

"BRESS AGENTS' PROMISE.

The Grand has booked a full week, beginning tomorrow night with a farce comedy, "Hello Bill," in which Harry Corson Clarke, the old-time favorite, is featured. The press agent says:

"Farcical comedy nowadays means so often rough and tumble humor of the variety known as horse play, in which harry corson clarke. The pressing the favorite is a favorite in the favorite and rouge for at me, "

The Grand has booked a full week, beginning tomorrow night favore comed, "Hello Bill," in the favore comed

While waiting for the train, he penned the following:

A man who was shy of the dough
Was making the tanks with a shough
He snoozed on the car
Till it carried him far
From the town he wauted to gough.

He flagged a sky pilot in Worcester And shoved some hot air for borcester; The cloth was a cinch And let go of an Inch, Which we grant was good for the ror-cester.

Ellery's Royal Italian band, which is to visit this city again during the com-ing season, will probably not play here again after that until 1905 or 1906. Mr. Ellery has made all arrangements for his organization to make a complete tour of Europe during the season of

'Is 'Ighness 'ad 'eard hevery joke and larfed at hevery one'
The Pessimist 'e wags 'is 'ead; the croaker sheds a tear;

"King Hedward's werry low,' says they,
"'is end is werry near!"
But crikey! 'e's the toughest Briton of us all, you bet!—
"E 'eard a 'undred minstrel jokes—and 'e's a-livin' yet!

There is an influential "opry house" manager in a certain one-night stand of Michigan who is decidedly opposed to curtain calls. Possibly it is because when he is not managing he takes his stand at the windlass and raises and owers the curtain.

When "York State Folks" was sent when "York State Folks" was sent forth into the great unknown its first performance was given in this Michigan town. There is a climax to the third act which aroused more than ordinary interest in the audience, and consequently there was a demand for the raising of the curtain. It was sent up and down once, but the audience persisted in the noise making. "Take it up! What are you waiting for?" yelled the stage manager. Still no change and more noise in front.

Margaret Dale Owen in "Hello, Bill."

"What's the matter up there?"
howled the now angry manager. At this point the decidedly rustic face of the manager peered over the fly gallery and a fog-horn voice came down. "Say, if you want this durned curtin up ag'in, you'll lift is yerself, I'm tuckered."

There are frequent revivals of amusing anecdotes attributed to the late John Stetson when he was prominent in the management of Boston theatres. The most popular of these relates to his production of "The Prodigal Son" at the Globe. and Rankin brought her to the Park

"We will need the twelve anostle in the play," said the stage manager at rehearsal. eh," answered Stetson Twelve, "twelve. Why, hang it, we'll have for-

Another bright reply relating to the stage found publication in the story column of the New York Times last and Rankin brought her to the Park theatre five or six years ago in a crude melodrama called 'Taken from Life,' or something like that. She was a tall, willowy girl of the Clara Morris order. That is, she was chock full of genius and just as full of crudeness and faults. In those days the palpitating Miss O'Neil did not more than a quarter know her business, yet the most hardened critic could not sit before her unmoved. She played a little, cheaply, around Manhattan, and then started back for the west that liked her. Then "Were you struck by her beauty?" the editor asked of the intrepid interaround Manhattan, and then started back for the west that liked her. Then she went to Australia with 'Magda,' and she and Rankin have made a fortune in the southern hemisphere that makes her one of the few really rich women on the stage. She will try London first in 'Magda,' and then revive the 'Elizabeth' that Ristori used to play if he any receibility Messelly. viewer who had attempted to question the irascible actress about her divorce

"Almost," he answered.
"Almost?"
"Yes. She hurled her powder box and rouge pot at me, but she missed

(San Francisco Bulletin.)

(King Edward attended a minstrel show the other day.—News Item.)

The Pessimist 'e wags 'is 'ead. The croaker sheds a tear.

"King Hedward's werry feeble!" is the sort of stuff we 'ear.

"Is 'Ishness is unable for to even tyke a walk Across the deck!" an' all of this 'ere bally bloomin' talk Is fillin' me with oceans of derision, don-cherknow.

Since Royal Hedward sat all through a bloody minstrel show!

The end man sprung a gray-haired joke; "W'v is a 'en?" says 'e.

An' Hedward bust 'is weskit an' says, "Pon the life of me!" says 'e.

An' Hedward laried an' coughed until 'is saced face was—black.

"By Jove!" exclaims 'is Majesty, "a coronation's slow Alongside of the antics of this bloomin' ministrel show!"

They went all through the repertoire; an'

Modern and up-to-date minstrels, as often rough and tumble humor of the variety known as horse play, in which it dividuals painted to resemble the monkey more than the human being disport themselves grotesquely and strive by every trick, legitimate or otherwise, to win laughter, that it is refreshing to note the advent of a farcical comedy which claims to win the heartiest kind of laughter by methods directlest kind of laughter, that it is refreshing to note the advent of a farcical comedy which claims to win the heartiest kind of laughter, that it is refreshing to note the advent of a farcical comedy which claims to win the heartiest kind of laughter, that it is refreshing to note the advent of a farcical comedy which claims to win the heartiest kind of laughter, that it is refreshing to note the advent of a farcical comedy which claims to win the hear

Modern and up-to-date minstrelsy, as conceived by the late William H. West, will be presented at the Theatre Wednesday and Thursday next by the company bearing his name and known as the William by Wednesday and Thursday next by the created lots of talk.

Since The Theatre has scored a big hit in New York and mings suggested for Mr. Mansfield's production to make it at once the most ornate and exhibitanting spectacle ever Wednesday and Thursday next by the company bearing his name and known as the William H. West Big Minstrel Jubilee. The press agent says: Probably no minstrel performer or proprietor during the past generation has done more to promote minstrelsy than "Billy" West. Most all of the great changes and innovations that have taken place in this form of entertainment can be traced directly to his upto-date ideas and methods.

The splendid success attending that four of this company has been adding with Frederic Warde, is to have the tour of this company has been adding vastly to the reputation of its late pro-prietor and promoter as it seems to be the general opinion of all those who

The majority of theatre patrons no doubt consider the first part with its music and end men's jokes the most attractive part of the programme. It is therefore the alm of the management

onsist of five acts of well known merit, introducing the Zarrow trio, trick and comedy cyclists, who will present the only bicycle pantomime now before the public, entitled "A Night on the Board Walk," which is said to be a huge laugh from beginning to end. Other features include MMMshon and King features include MMShon and King features features features features features of the eastern dramatic writers are speculating as to the play David Belasco is preparing for Blanche Bates. Popular opinion makes it an arrange-ment of Egerton Castle's dialogue novellage features include McMahon and King, eccentric black face comedians and dancers; Billy Van, in his inimitable monologue, entirely new this season, in which he relates his experiences on a slow train; the Ford Brothers, the champion hard shoe dancers of the world, and Swift and Huber, the premier comedy musical artists.

The latter half of the week, with a matinee Saturday, the Grand has "The been phenomenal, exceeding that of any English melodrama ever brought to this country. Its story appeals to the best emotions in man, and it presents a series of picturesque and real-istic scenes illustrating life, not only in the mysterious depths of London, but in the sweet and fragrant countryside as well. Its exciting incidents, natural in the development, betray the hand of a master in dramatic construction and win applause from all classes. The eye is pleased with the vivid real-ism achieved by the art of the scene painter and the ingenuity of the stage mechanic, who have contrived to give o "The Stowaway" a more elaborate setting than was ever before given an English drama. The lover of sensa-lonalism in its best and dignified sense and "Kid" Boyce, one of the most thrilling incidents in the whole range

Saturday nights, with a matinee Saturday. The production has acquired more fame, perhaps, on account of the dormitory scene than from any other home in New York of liver com-

The press agent says: This musical death was paying her $75 weekly all-comedy is the work of the prolific writer, Harry B. Smith. The piece is writer, Harry B. Smith. The piece is a musical comedy without a star, that is, there is no particular part that stands out beyond the rest, nor is there any name on the programme in darker type than the others. It is possible that Mr. Smith, who usually is given the task of writing a book around some star, was in this case allowed to have a freer hand, at any rate. "The Liberty Belles" is much brighter, and contains more that is original and really funny than almost any of the comic opera books that he has produced. The piece is in three has produced. The piece is in three acts, the first showing the dormitory of the young ladies' seminary, the sec-ond the cooking school of "The Liberty orite, is featured. The press agent Belles" and the third a Florida hotel.

SMALL TALK.

Jane Rennark, well known to Salt Lake theatre-goers, will star this season as Cigarette in "Under Two Flags."

A correspondent in Salt Lake who signs himself R. W. E., recently wrote to the Dramatic Mirror to learn if Maxine Elliott ever played in "Floro-Great heavens! Did Bernhardt ever

The new musical comedy by Leslie Stuart (author of "Florodora") and Paul M. Potter has been completed. It will not be seen in this country un-It will not be seen in this country un-til after the production at the Prince of Wales' theatre, London, with Edna May in the principal role. As now ar-ranged the piece will be in three scenes—two in the first act. The open-ing scene will be in the grounds of a convent; the second in a stock broker's nvent; the second in a stock broker's to a contract with Charles Frohman, and will probably be one of that gentleman's stars next season.

prietor and promoter as it seems to be the general opinion of all those who have witnessed the performance this season, that it eclipses anything in the minstrel line yet accomplished by Mr. West's manager.

The majority of theatre patrons no doubt consider the first part with its music and end men's jokes the most known ability.

is therefore the alm of the management this season, in organizing this company, to make this feature pre-eminently bright and interesting.

Billy Van, who is considered by many as the greatest burnt-cork performer of the present day, occupies the principal end of the semi-circle.

The vaudeville features of the olio consist of five acts of well known merit.

The latest engagement for "Prince of Pilsen" is Helen Bertram. formerly of the Bostonians, who has signed with Henry W. Savage for the part of the dashing American widow. Miss Bertram has just returned from Europe, where she went after her illness. She has not been singing for a year, her last engagement being with Jerome Sykes in "Foxy Ouller" Jerome Sykes in "Foxy Quiller."

matinee Saturday, the Grand has "The Stowaway," the well known melodrama presented here some years ago. The press agent says:

Few plays produced within the last ten years possess more genuine human interest than "The Stowaway," which, by the way, is booked for an early appearance in this city. Its success has been phenomenal, exceeding that of any English melodrama ever brought

Mrs. Sarah Cowell Le Movne, will star next season in a piece which con-cerns contemporary society, called "Among Those Present." The author is Glen McDonough.

Nance O'Neil, the American actress opened her season in London last Mon-day night, appearing in "Magda." Ca-blegrams report a big success, of which McKee Rankin had a prominent part.

Among the new plays to be produced shortly in New York is one called "There's Many a Slip." It is really not new, merely an adaptation of the English drama. The lover of sensationalism in its best and dignified sense will find the blowing open of a burglar proof safe by these two expert but now reformed cracksmen "Spike" Wallace and "Kid" Boyce, one of the most thrilling incidents in the whole range of drama. Loftus were in the cast. The piece has One of Harry B. Smith's celebrated austical comedies, "The Liberty Belles," will be seen at the Theatre Friday and Family."

been made over by Captain Robert Marshall, who has already distinguished himself as the author of "A Royal Family."

pink pajama girl, that Pauline Chase won tremendous notoriety, ending finally in her engagement to a well known New York millionaire. There are twenty-two girls in their "nighties" in this scene, No wonder the show is popular!

her nome in New York of liver complaint. She was a prominent society woman of Buffalo and divorced also from her first husband. She married the comedian almost immediately upon obtaining a decree, and Mr. Goodwin, in turn, married Maxine Elliott as soon as she secured her separation from popular! him. Mr. Goodwin at the time of her

during the past ten years

Here is some more about Ada Pat-terson's work, from a Philadelphia pa-per: Victory Bateman has made her debut in the literary field. She is co-author with Ada Patterson in a volume of stories called "By the Stage Door." As the title implies it is about actors and actresses. Annie Adams, mother of Maude Adams, has written the introduction to the book, and she says: "Every character has lived. Every incident has happened in the flesh, and I have been present when some of the events herein set down have oc-

Philip Hale of Boston thus discourses anent Mr. Mansfield's appearance as Brutus and Julius Caesar in the Shake-spearean play: "We remember an actor named E. L. Davenport, who played Brutus in such admirable fashion that no one complained of the smallness of the part; the impersonation, on accoun of its beauty, strength, dignity and philosophic calmness still haunts memory; but Mr. Davenport was an actor of the old school, who was not given to chatter. Would it not be advantageous to Mr. Mansfield if he odette Tyler has placed her signature to a contract with Charles Frohman, and will probably be one of that gentleman's stars next season.

Maurice Freeman, who has taken E. J. Morgan's place in "The Christian," Vantageous to Mr. Mansfield if he should deliver the speech of Mark Antony? To add the parts of Portia and the ghost, even with the aid of venture of the should not, as "Punch" Wheelstan, "There is no reason, however, why he should not, as "Punch" Wheelstan, who has taken E. J. Worgan's place in "The Christian," will take but a few more of the trim-seen on the stage.

A near attraction at the Theatre is the Tivoli opera company of San Francisco, one of the best companies presenting comic opera in America today. In the repertoire this year is the Bostonian success, "The Serenade," which will be presented here. It is the work of Strathmore," a dramatization of Outda's novel, this season. Virginia Drew Trescott, last season leading woman with Frederic Warde, is to have the leading part. remember.

Here is one from the press agent that ought to hold us for a while: "There never was a woman of the stage, prob-ably, who has been besieged to the same extent as Miss Helen Grantly has for her pictures with her autograph Scarcely a day has passed in the last year, she says, that she has not been the recipient on an average of twenty letters, principally from young girls, begging a picture with her signature. Were she to grant all these request she would exhaust her private income in paying for photos."

IT IS A PARASITE.

That Causes Itching Scalp, Dandruff, and Finally Falling Hair.

and Finally Falling Hair.

The itching scalp, the falling hair and the dandruff that annoys are the work of a parasite hidden in the scalp. That parasite must be killed to cure dandruff, and the only preparation that will do that is Newbro's Herpicide. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect."

C. H. Reed of Victor, Idaho, says: "Myself and wife had dandruff and falling hair, several years. Two bottles of Newbro's Herpicide completely cured us, after several other hair preparations had failed to do good." Makes hair grow glossy and soft as silk. Hundreds of other testimonials just as strong. Send 10 cents in stamps for sample. The Herpicide Co., 40 Jefferson Ave., Detroit, Mich.

"KEEP MONEY AT HOME" By Insuring in the

Heber J. Grant & Co., General Agents

Husler's Flour

which pleases the palate, that nourishing quality which sustains health, and that delicate fineness which makes its products look inviting.

RELIABLE MATHIS,

The Druggist, Sole Agent. 324 S. Main St.

Salt Lake Cheatre

The Wm. H. West

THE PRINCIPAL COMEDIANS. Billy Van. John King. Juillen Bennett, Frank Hamud. THE PRINCIPAL SINGERS Clement Stewart, Harry Sylvester, E. W. Chipman, W. W. Miller.

Prices: 25c, 50c, 75c, $1.00 Box office open Monday.

> Jewelry Store

is the best place in the world to get suggestions for birthday presents. The stock is so varied and the prices are so varied that every kind of taste and every kind of pocketbook is sure to be suited. We want visitors just about this time. Our stock never runs down.

¥ DIAMONDS €

Mfg. Jewelers. Watch Repairers. LYON & CO.

143 Main St. Telephone 1070 Z.

++++++++++++++

OF UTA - Dr. J. B. KEYSOR

DENTAL PARLORS 240 S. MAIN ST 20 to 26 Main St., Salt Lake City. Next door north of Walker House.

has that rich wheaty flavor

FemaleRegulating Pills

$8.00 Crown and Bridge Work a Specialty

Good Set of Teeth for

Hotel Knutsford

6. S. Holmes, Proprietor. New and elegant in all its appointments; 250 rooms, single and en suite; rooms with bath.

THAIL MARKET TO THE STATE OF TH JONES & HAMMER, Mgrs.

PRICES: Night, 25c, 50c, 75c.

THREE NICHTS AND SATURDAY MATINEE, BEGINNING,

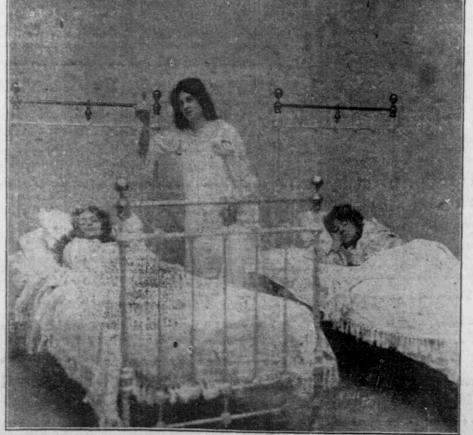

THURSDAY, SEPT. 25.

The Sensational English Melodrama,

THE STOWAWAY

With all Its Scenic Effects.

Seats on sale Tuesday, September 23.

They went all through the repertoire; an' wen the show was done,

DORMITORY SCENE FROM "THE LIBERTY BELLES."

GOODHUE & KELLOGG

Announce the Initial Appearance in Salt Lake City of the Comedy Cyclone of the Century

BY WILLIS MAXWELL GOODHUE.

THE FUNNIEST THING UNDER THE SUN.

Miss Pauline Hickler in 'Hello Bill.'

SEPT The Splendid Company of Comedy Players

Beginning MONDAY,

Is Headed by MR.

AND INCLUDES:

Mr. S. S. Wiltsie, Mr. Arthur Gogliser, Mr. Frank T. Glenn, Mr. Gideon Burton, Mr. Robert Watt,

Miss Pauline Hickler, Miss Kathryn Vincent, Miss Mildred Claire, Miss Marion Kirby. Miss Margaret Dale Owen.

NEW AND ORIGINAL MUSIC.

Hear "Nancy Brown" and "Pinky Panky Poo."

PRICES: Night-25c, 50c, 75c.

Sale of Seats Now On.